1. Near a large rolling-stock factory three kilometers from Stalin on the road to Floesti, there is a large technical boarding school for the "sons of workers and peasants", which was constructed in 1950.
2. At present there are 500 boys but 1,100 more are said to be joining this year. The boys live 32 to a room; they wear red shirts but not an official uniform. There are eight rooms to each of six buildings. Of the 50 existing classes, 12 are conducted in Hungarian for the minority. The boys work four hours each morning at classes, and four hours each afternoon in the workshops, metal working and tool making.
